Comments:

RedFox1942: how the frick volume is not enough how you cant hear 100db its literally break point of your e

Sufficient-Lynx7334: hahahahah must be a troll post or a faulty set.

None: If I read this I seriously think you didn't charge the headphones, didn't power them on and use a wire

DanShawn: You're either trolling or your headphones are busted. The XM5s, or any Sony ANC headphone Elffy911: Boss I think you have lost your sense of hearing. That?s the problem with your review

NasarMalis: Have you checked the maximum volume in headphones app? It's independant of the device v roomyverse: I think there's a setup issue somewhere - maybe in the volume of the source. Did you set up s Hav0cPix3l: Disagree really good headphones use them for work and gaming. Music sound is top notch an topcodedev: I use mine at 50% volume, rarely 60%. If I would go above 60%, then I would assume my hea

None: Looking at your post, you have an iOS device. XM5s are not exactly the best for the iOS system, mo

Honest-Mess-812: Either your headphones are defective or something like XB910 might be more suitable f

Big_Ad_4724: Troll post imo. No edit after OP said they?d return it ?tomorrow?. They were bashing these c

TrainingMeeting8592: Yes I felt this way completely when I tried them, returned right away

Suitable_Author9755: A lot of people on here are saying you have a faulty pair, which could be, but you co

Beautiful-Simple1816: Nope it?s the headphones <https://preview.redd.it/n692v3ef0csb1.png?width=3024&>

ogag79: I own both WF and WH-1000XM5, and volume has never been an issue for both. OP: I'm not dov Beautiful-Simple1816: It was brand new from Best Buy.

Beautiful-Simple1816: Not a troll either. Pls stop assuming. Just makes you look bad not me. My post was

None: I just bought the same xm5 like a couple days ago, like when I have only headphone on without liste

Beautiful-Simple1816: I have an iPhone 15 Pro Max, iPhone 13 Pro & Samsung fold 4. None of these have

Beautiful-Simple1816: So negative & full of assumptions

Beautiful-Simple1816: No I haven?t. I can?t figure out the touch on these headphones lol. It?s either it stop Beautiful-Simple1816: I?m going to redo this and check! My bf tested it on his phone without the Sony coming out.

Beautiful-Simple1816: I find the new AirPods Pro 2nd gen sound if not louder than the Sony xm5. Is that still the case?

Beautiful-Simple1816: AirPods Max is heavy on my ears. I like the balance of weight of the xm5. Ill go back to the xm5.

Beautiful-Simple1816: I find the new AirPods Pro 2nd gen sound if not louder than the Sony xm5. Is that still the case?

Beautiful-Simple1816: Is that Sony as well?

Beautiful-Simple1816: I did return. Got a new one and it works better so I kept the new second pair.

JordanIII: If the volume isn't enough for you you either have a faulty pair or you have hearing problems bro.

RedFox1942: I said that because I don't have earbuds.

Sufficient-Lynx7334: I do think your headphones are faulty. The sound profile of these headphones has too much bass.

OpeningImportant6192: This is late but I discovered that the xm5 has transparency mode (like AirPod max).

None: Like others say: they are faulty. No way this is expected behaviour. In the other reaction you told be.

rjchirinos: No to take it bad, but seriously. If we all are agree that volume and bass are not an issue but the NasarMalis: I think it might solve low volume problem(it solved for me when I just started using the headphones).

roomyverse: They should still work fine out of the box. I found the 360 audio underwhelming, tbh, but the stereo rjchirinos: I agree on this, I can?t see how volume can be an issue for you, I usually use mine on half volume.

Beautiful-Simple1816: First off, I?m a woman not bro. Secondly, how does one increase volume on the headphones?

Beautiful-Simple1816: Right but Best Buy allowed me to return it even after using it the next day as I phoned them.

Beautiful-Simple1816: I find the new AirPods Pro 2nd gen sound if not louder than the Sony xm5. Is that still the case?

Beautiful-Simple1816: Ok I?ll return it tomorrow for sure thank you!

Beautiful-Simple1816: How do I tell Best Buy it is defective? I can tell them to test it. One staff at Best Buy

Beautiful-Simple1816: I find the new AirPods Pro 2nd gen sound if not louder than the Sony xm5. Is that still the case?

JordanIII: Yup half volume is perfectly fine. If his aren't faulty and he also doesn't have hearing problems, h JordanIII: >First off, I?m a woman not bro. To me, bro is genderless lmao I call my female friends bro as well.

Sufficient-Lynx7334: Maybe try momentum 4s? Or airpods max are decent as well. Momentum 4s beat airpods

None: I don't understand your reaction to my question. I don't understand you're comparing earbuds to headphones.

choob13: They don't use wireless ANC BT headphones. You can get 100x better sound quality with a $10

Mr_Dodo69: I HAVE hearing problems (a lot of shooting as a kid without ear pro) and 70% is still ample.

Beautiful-Simple1816: How do I tell Best Buy it is defective? I can tell them to test it. One staff at Best Buy

Hav0cPix3l: Same call women bro also lol

Beautiful-Simple1816: Yes AirPods is so much better than XM5.

Beautiful-Simple1816: How do I tell Best Buy it is defective? I can tell them to test it. One staff at Best Buy

Sufficient-Lynx7334: Noise cancelling wise XM5 are a lot better as well as in the bass and mids. Apples ca

None: Just tell them the arguments you wrote down in this thread. 90% of the reactions tell you it's either d

Beautiful-Simple1816: Thank you!!!

None: Just wrote your new post. That's good.
